

First of all I think we have the right to listen to Sat. radio, and the fact is that its a service we pay for. There are alot of rual areas where radio dosent come in anyways (ie.. along the southwestern border). No radio signals to listen too. Xm is a miracle out here, Its our right...